a written assurance from the state government regarding fulfillment of demands, farmers under the banner of the Bharti Kisan Union (Ugrahan) lifted their dharna after 21 days from near the local residence of CM Bhagwant Mann today.

Joginder Singh Ugrahan, chief, BKU (Ugrahan), while addressing farmers during the victory rally, said, "CM Mann had accepted our demands on October 7, but we decided to sit on the road in order to get the written assurance. We wanted to know how the government will fulfil our demands. The delay in giving us in writing shows that the present Aam Aadmi Party government is no different from others. We should be prepared to protest against the Centre to get our remaining demands fulfilled."

Sangrur Deputy Commissioner Jitendra Jorwal said a team of senior officials handed over the written assurance to farmers today.

According to details shared by the BKU (Ugrahan) leaders, the AAP government has assured to purchase paddy on the minimum support price (MSP), release pending payment of moong within 15 days and provide compensation of crop loss till November 30.

Other major demands include no action against farmers for burning stubble due to lack of machines and resources and withdrawal of cases registered last year, renovation of canal system till January 31, 2023, no action against farmers protesting outside Zira ethanol plant, land acquisition for roads as per the demand of farmers and release of financial aid to dairy farmers who lost their cattle due to the lumpy skin disease.

Sukhdev Singh Kokri Kalan, general secretary, BKU (Ugrahan), said, "We should start strengthening our organisation to fight against the Centre." — TNS

CHANDIGARH, OCTOBER 29

The Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) has always tried to give a special place to Bhagat Singh since it came to power in the state. Just before taking oath as the Chief Minister at Khatkar Kalan, Bhagwant Mann had announced that there would be no CM photo in government offices as per the past practice and now pictures of only Shaheed-e-Azam Bhagat Singh and Dr B R Ambedkar would be put up at all offices.

Apparently to woo Hindu voters in Gujarat ahead of Assembly elections, AAP's national convenor Arvind Kejriwal has now demanded that the Centre should print images of Goddess Lakshmi and Lord Ganesha on currency notes to bring "economic prosperity" to 130 crore Indians.

However, the political gimmick of the Delhi Chief Minister has not gone well with

AAP emptying to bribe Guja

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

CHANDIGARH, OCTOBER 29

The Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) today accused the Aam Aadmi Party government in Punjab of playing havoc with the state's finances while trying to bribe Gujarat voters.

"The rampant corruption, illegal mining and massive borrowing in Punjab must be having a definite link with the hawala money being distributed by the AAP in Gujarat, which needs to be probed," BJP leader and state general secretary Subhash Sharma said here today.

He said the CAG report had revealed how much financial mess the AAP government had created in the state and simultaneously the money was being transferred through hawala channels to bribe the voters in Gujarat.

Tackle spread of dengue: Minister

CHANDIGARH, OCTOBER 29

Health and Family Welfare Minister Chetan Singh Jouramajra has directed the Civil Surgeons to make coordinated efforts to tackle spread of dengue.

The minister asked Civil Surgeons to set up dengue wards, do fogging in rural and urban areas and to enhance manpower to prevent larvae breeding.

Jouramajra said the government, has taken concrete steps to tackle rising cases of dengue. He said though the case load was very low as compared to last year, there was no laxity in terms of efforts.

The Health Minister appealed to the masses to keep their houses and surroundings clean to avoid spread of dengue. — TNS
