HC to aid of contractual asst profs in PU colleges

SAURABH MALIK
TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

CHANDIGARH, NOVEMBER 11
Holding that the state and its institutions cannot "exploit citizens nor take advantage of mass unemployment," the High Court has ordered the regularisation of contractual assistant professors serving for more than 12 years in the constituent colleges of Pan-jab University (PU).

Justice Jagmohan Bansal ruled that the petitioners, who were appointed in 2012 after undergoing a due selection process against sanctioned posts, were not "backdoor entrants" and could not be denied regularisation merely because they were initially appointed on a contractual basis. "The petitioners were appointed after following due procedure. They are fully qualified. They are working with the university since 2012 and that too without any protection of this court or any other court. They were selected against sanctioned posts," the Bench observed, directing Panjab University to regularise their services within six weeks. The petitioners were represented by advocate Sarthak Gupta.

Justice Bansal made it clear that "they shall be deemed to be regularised" if no order of regularisation was passed within the stipulated six weeks and would be entitled to seniority and regular pay from the expiry of that period. Justice Bansal asserted that governments and public institutions had "made hay" from a Constitution Bench judgment on contractual employment. "They have started making appointment on contract/ad-hoc/temporary/part-time basis in every department including education which is a character and nation building department. Many teachers appointed on contract basis are getting miniscule salary even in comparison to regularly appointed peons," the court observed. Justice Bansal asserted that public funds were being "siphoned off for subsidies instead of appointing regular employees and paying regular pay scale." "The state being a model employer neither can exploit its citizen nor take advantage of mass unemployment. It is expected to make recruitment in accordance with prescribed procedure and on permanent basis. It cannot keep hanging sword of termination," the court added.

Suspended DIG Bhullar sent to judicial custody

The CBI Court, Chandigarh, on Tuesday sent suspended DIG Harcharan Singh Bhullar to judicial custody till November 20. Bhullar was produced in the court after the completion of his five-day remand in a disproportionate assets case. Bhullar and his alleged aid Kirshanu Sharma were arrested by the CBI on October 16 for allegedly seeking bribe from Naresh Batta, a scrap dealer from Mandi Gobindgarh. Batta had alleged that Bhullar demanded a bribe of Rs 8 lakh through a middleman, Kirshanu, to settle a 2023 FIR lodged at the Sirhind police station. — TNS
